About Limassol

Limassol is strategically positioned on the southern coast of Cyprus, being the largest city in terms of geographical size. It shares borders with the district of Larnaca in the east, the district of Paphos in the west, the capital Nicosia in the north, and Akrotiri Bay to the south. Limassol's central location allows easy access to major cities and the Troodos Mountains, all within a 35 to 45-minute drive. Moreover, it is conveniently located just 35 minutes away from both Larnaca and Paphos airports.

Limassol is a secure destination that offers a wealth of experiences. From its stunning seafronts to numerous cultural, recreational, and leisure activities, vibrant events and festivals, to being a hub for conferences and incentive travel programs.

Beyond its acclaim as a tourism destination, Limassol serves as an administrative and business centre, a port, a resort, the heart of the wine industry, and home to numerous archaeological sites. The city centre is a lively blend of the old and the new, where the bustling university with ambitious students coexists with the old market and ancient castle, connecting us to the past. This seamless integration of the past and present extends to the seafront, where cosmopolitan structures and modern apartment buildings stand just a few kilometres away from charming areas with cobblestone streets, quaint buildings, and a plethora of small shops, restaurants, and cafes.

Additional Useful Information

Local time

Cyprus is in the Eastern European Time zone (EET) and operates on UTC +2. It is in the same time zone as the EU member states of Bulgaria, Estonia, Greece, Finland, Latvia, Lithuania and Romania. Cyprus is one hour ahead of Central European Time (CET).

Weather

Temperatures in early December are usually around 17-19°C during the day and 10-11°C at night with an overall average of 13°C (and if you like swimming the sea temperature is around 18°C at this time of year!). There is on average 5 hours of sunshine a day, and December is the wettest month in Cyprus with around 12 days of rain.

Visa Requirements

For EU citizens it is not needed. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs for the Republic of Cyprus has a current list of countries for which visas are required to enter Cyprus. It is important to check what those visa requirements are before you travel to the island.

Currency

The currency in Cyprus is the Euro (EUR/€). Credit cards are widely accepted, and foreign currency/travellers' cheques can be exchanged at banks. There are several ATMs at banks near the venue.

Electricity

Cyprus uses the Type G electricity plug (commonly known as the 13-amp plug or British plug) and operates on a 230V supply voltage and 50Hz. It is essential to bring the correct adapter plug for your trip to Cyprus if your electrical appliances are to operate safely. In the provided link you can find all the related information about adaptors in Cyprus (BS 1363).

EuroMed2024 is not in the position to provide delegates with adapters attending the conference. These can normally be purchased in local kiosks and shops for a few Euro.
